Jesus, the Good Shepherd

In last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends the apostles out and today they have just returned to share their excitement and joy with Jesus, the Good Shepherd. In today's Gospel, Jesus knows that these apostles need a "time out". He gently but firmly invites them to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." All of us need that time to "get away" to rest from the Monday-Friday work of our week. Jesus took the time to go off to be with His Father and He also heard the cries of His people and met their needs. The Christian life is lived in balance. Learning to listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd, looking to His example, can help us to know when to do the good works and when to take a rest. How do I maintain a balance between my work, my life with my family, my life with God? How will I be more attentive to the voice of the Good Shepherd this week?

Hands Together - Catholic Missions in Haiti

We are pleased to announce the Catholic Lay Mission Program, Hands Together, will be visiting our parish next weekend, July 25-26. Hands Together is a Mission Program founded by an Oblate of St. Francis De Sales to serve the very poor in Haiti. The Church in Haiti is going through a critical time, and there is a strong spirit of hope uniting the people that comes from their solidarity with Christ and the Church. Father Tom Hagan, O.S.F.S., Founder of Hands Together, asks, "Help us respond to the cries of the poor in Haiti. Any size gift will help! Since 1996, I have lived among these most desperate and poor people and experienced first hand their horrific suffering. The needs are staggering, but we put this work in God's hands and trust that our desire to serve the poorest of the poor will be blessed by God's love. We promise that every cent of your gift to Hands Together will be used prayerfully and responsibly. Pray for me and for all of us as we struggle to see Jesus in every human." You can learn more about Hands Together online at www.handstogether.org or by mail at P. O. Box 80985, Springfield, MA 01138.

You will find a special mission appeal envelope in your packets. Please give as generously as you are able.

Diocesan Goal Reached

As a result of the generosity of 10,657 donors, the 2008 Bishop's Fund Appeal has reached its goal of $1,200,000.00. Our parish goal was $50,485.00. We contributed $41,619.00. Thank you to all who contributed. We are confident that the Bishop's Fund 2009 Appeal will see us hit the mark.

WARMER WEATHER HAS ARRIVED: Please dress appropriately for Church. Our attire is a sign of respect for the House of God and for ourselves.

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK:

As you know, two of our parishioners, David Sandburg and John White, have participated for the last several years in the Deacon Formation Program for the Diocese of Ogdensburg. Recently, both men received their call to be ordained permanent deacons here at St. Mary's Cathedral on Saturday, September 19, 2009, at 11:00 AM. Bishop Cunningham will come back to ordain the twelve men. David and John will participate next week at a special canonical retreat for all our deacon candidates. Please keep both men, their wives, Linda and Mary Lou, and their families, in your prayers as they prepare spiritually to be admitted to the Order of Deacon.

A new birth - A new life

We welcome into our Catholic faith, through the saving waters of Baptism, the following children: Tyler James Wallace, son of Christopher and Jessica Wallace; and Alexander Bryant McCarney, son of Douglas McCarney and Kristina Barton. Through water and the Holy Spirit your child became a child of God. May He continue to bless your child with faith, hope, and joy.

Light a candle

Is someone close to you in need of your prayers? Are you praying for a special intention? Remember, for a small donation of $2.00, you can light a candle in the Chapel or at the Sacred Heart altar in the main Cathedral. The candle will burn for five days.

Outreach to the Homebound

Do you know of someone within our parish community who is unable to come to Church for Mass because of ill health? We ask that you please notify us with their names by calling the rectory at 393-3930. It is our desire to minister to all our parishioners.

Home for a visit? Looking for a little something from the North Country?

Why not come by the rectory and pick up a copy of the parish cookbook, Feeding the Flock, for just $5. Many delicious recipes to choose from. We also have available Sister Mary Christine Taylor's book on the history of the diocese and the Cathedral, Mary's Parish, for $20 and Empire State Catholics: The History of the Catholic Community in New York State, a 208 page book written by Father Thomas Skelly, a leading Catholic historian. Our diocese has an eight-page color insert at the beginning of this book. It is available for $25. You can purchase "Comes the Dawn", a print of the Cathedral by Stephen Chambers, for $20. Ernie Hadley has graciously offered his CD of instrumental music for relaxation and meditation. It can be yours for $12 (or the cassette for $8). All items are available through the rectory office during business hours.

Pilgrimage to Turkey

Father Andrew J. Amyot, Pastor of the Church of the Visitation in Norfolk, is hosting a 12 day tour of Biblical Turkey, "In the Steps of Paul & John." The trip dates are November 4-15. What Happens to Your Retirement Money When You Don't Use It?

Many tax advisors recommend serious consideration be given to naming one or more of your favorite charities as the beneficiary of your retirement plans if you do not have a surviving spouse. Why? There is 100% income tax deduction and 100% estate tax deduction for all retirement money that passes to a qualified charity. That means that if you name our parish as the beneficiary of one or more of your retirement plans or IRA's, 100 cents on the dollar of retirement money goes to our parish instead of a smaller portion that may pass on to others after taxes. You could even have the funds set aside as part of an endowment fund in the Foundation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg, whereby the income could be used by our parish and the principal kept intact. For more information, please call Janice Shoen, Development Office, Diocese at 393-2920.
