Prayer for Christian Unity

"One in the apostles' teaching, fellowship, breaking of bread and prayer (Acts 2:42) is the theme for the 2011 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25). Begun in 1908, this observance is set aside each year to invite the whole Christian community, throughout the world, to pray in communion with the prayer of Jesus "that they all may be one" (John 17:21). The annual service this year will be held next Sunday, January 23, at 7:00 PM in the United Methodist Church on Caroline Street here in the city. Most Rev. Terry R. LaValley will deliver the message.

This service is sponsored by the Ogdensburg Ministerial Association with clergy from several local churches participating. People of all Christian faiths are invited and encouraged to attend. Won't you join us next Sunday evening as we pray together for unity and peace throughout the world?

The Lamb of God

"Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). It is interesting to note that John the Baptist indicates who he is not. He says: "I am not the Christ." "I am not Elijah." "I am not the Prophet." As John the Baptist is pressed to say who he is, he quotes Isaiah, "I am the voice crying out in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord." John is the voice. Jesus is the Word. He is the "I Am". The voice is there to serve the Word. John prepares the way. Jesus is the way. As John's ministry begins to decline and Jesus' ministry begins, John moves behind the scenes to allow Jesus to be light and life for His people. John was enthusiastic about his ministry but he made no hesitation to stand back from the limelight to allow Jesus to be "the Lamb of God". How willing are you to allow others to receive recognition when you have paved the way for their success?

Live Coverage of "March For Life" Mass

On January 24, CatholicTV will air live coverage of the Mass For Life from the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C., at 10:00 AM. CatholicTV will also air the Youth Rally for Life at the Verizon Center. This rally will include musical performances by Steve Angrisano, Ike Ndolo, Maddie Curtis, and an audience of thousands of young Catholics from around the country. The rally will air immediately after Mass. Both events will be rebroadcast at 8:00 PM the same day. Cardinal Donald Wuerl of Washington will preside over the Mass For Life. Due to overwhelming attendance at this event in the past years, a second Youth Rally and Mass for Life will also take place at the DC Armory that will allow an additional 10,000 youth to attend. These events will be viewable at CatholicTV.com and CatholicTV cable outlets. More information about how to watch Catholic TV is available at <http://www.CatholicTV.com/schedule/where-to-watch.aspx>.

Three key themes

This week, our nation honors the dream of equal human rights articulated by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. On January 22, we also mark the anniversary of the most egregious violation of human rights through the Supreme Court decision Roe vs. Wade, which permitted the killing of children in the womb. During these days, Christians also observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. These three themes intersect powerfully. We pray that Christians will unite in effective service to all who are deprived of their rights, and bring a Culture of Life, Justice, and Love.

March for Life Novena Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Lady of Guadalupe, we turn to you, the protectress of unborn children, and ask that you intercede for us, so that we may more firmly resolve to join you in protecting all human life. Let our prayers be united to your perpetual motherly intercession on behalf of those whose lives are threatened, be they in the womb of their mother, on the bed of infirmity, or in the latter years of their life. May our prayers also be coupled with peaceful action which witnesses to the goodness and dignity of all human life, so that our firmness of purpose may give courage to those who are fearful and bring light to those who are blinded by sin. Encourage those who will be involved in the March for Life; help them to walk closely with God and to give voice to the cry of the oppressed, in order to remind our nation of its commitment to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all people. O Virgin Mother of God, present our petitions to your Son and ask Him to bless us with abundant life.

Amen

(A novena, based on the Latin word "novem" meaning nine, is prayed for nine days before a memorial or event. Please pray this prayer beginning January 16th, once a day, until the day of the March for Life on January 24.)
