 Prayer for Independence Day
As we celebrate today, dear God, with fireworks and festivals, help us never to forget the reason for our joy. Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots. Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document, and that all people have rights because you have given us the dignity of human life. Grant freedom to all, and give us the strength to protect the rights of others. AMEN

Elizabeth Ministry Rosebud program

The Rosebud Program is a visual reminder of the precious blessing of each new life. You will find silk rosebuds in a basket at the Sacred Heart Altar next to a vase with silk baby's breath flowers. The rosebuds represent a sacred life. A pink rosebud is to honor pregnancy and the unborn baby. A red rosebud celebrates birth or adoption. A white rosebud remembers a child lost through miscarriage, abortion, stillbirth, or child death. A yellow rosebud represents those waiting to conceive or adopt. Each rosebud has a tag attached with a ribbon. The tag has a place to write information regarding pregnancy, birth, adoption, loss, trying to conceive or adopt. People are invited to remove a rosebud from the basket, fill in the attached tag and place the rosebud in the vase. Prayer cards for the various situations are displayed next to the vase. Those filling out the tags are invited to take a prayer card for their personal meditation. St. Mary's Cathedral parish members promise to pray for those the rosebuds represent.

Revelation to the "Little Ones"

Who are these "little ones" that Jesus talks about in Matthew's Gospel? The "little ones" are those who are the meek and the humble and know their need for God. They are dependent upon Him for His words of comfort when the burdens of life become too difficult. In contrast are the "wise and the learned" who feel they are self-sufficient, wise according to this world's standards, and are willing to listen to the words of Jesus. Jesus was able to receive everything from His Father, for His own heart and mind was fixed solely upon the Father. Jesus' relationship with the Father is one of complete trust and love, a relationship of oneness. There were no hidden agendas with Jesus, only a self-revelation of who He was with the Father. We learn from Jesus how to be meek and humble of heart because of His own self-giving love to the Father, to the disciples, and to us. As a family of faith, we can lean on each other for support with the promise of Jesus to be with us. What Gospel revelations are challenging to your own life? How do you turn to Jesus when you are suffering the burdens of unemployment, sickness in the family, or weariness of life?
